HAD A STORMY TIME.

EXCITING MEETING OF THE K. OF L. CONVENTION.

THE LIE PASSED MANY TIMES.

Mr. Powderly Accuses Mr. Wright of Giving Away the Secrets of the Order—All the General Officers Asked to Resign—Detectives Offer to Blow Up Bridges and Round Houses.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 21.—The general assembly of the Knights of Labor held another stormy session yesterday, and the lie passed more than once between the administration and anti-administrators. Mr. Powderly accused J. A. Wright of giving away the secrets of the order. He declared Wright had furnished the information for the reports printed in a morning paper. Wright denied the accusation vigorously.

The delegates looked anxiously yesterday for the report of the finance committee, which was promised, but was not yet ready. It is stated that the committee is divided upon the report, three of the members wishing to vindicate Powderly and two opposing this, and threatening to present a minority report, and the report is delayed in order that the difference may be adjusted if possible.

A resolution requesting the resignation of all the general officers was presented yesterday. It was promptly referred to the committee on resolutions, although the delegate presenting it asked for immediate action. Mr. Powderly, however, advocated referring it. The general officers are plainly disturbed over the fact that their proceedings have been published, despite their efforts to prevent it and they are industriously looking for the leak.

MADE A BOLD OFFER.

Alleged Detectives Want to Burn Bridges and Blow Up Round Houses.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—The general grievance committee says overtures were made to Chairman Wilkin of the Lehigh Valley railroad by alleged detectives, who offered to burn bridges and blow up round houses. They were ordered out of the Birmingham house, in which the committee has headquarters.

C. C. Burnes at Rest.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—C. C. Burnes, vice president of the National Bank of St. Joseph, Mo., died here this morning. He had come here to be treated for diabetes.

Mr. Burnes was elected mayor of Atchison, Kan., in 1884 and removed to St. Joseph on the expiration of his term of office and had occupied the position of vice president of the bank ever since. In 1890 he ran for congress against John A. Anderson in the Second Kansas district, but was defeated.

Attempted to Blow Up a Monument.

MONTREAL, Nov. 21.—Three young men, two of them law students, the third a son of ex-Premier Merle, were arrested yesterday for attempting to blow up Nelson's monument on Jacques Cartier Square. The French population has long objected to the monument being placed in this city, they claiming that Nelson was an enemy of their race, and recent press articles tended to create a bitter feeling.

The Great Lakes Are High Seas.

WOMEN'S WAYS.

An expensive habit—a Worth gown. The male sash has bobbed up again. Strawberry forks are a new side-board novelty. A steady blue eye is said to indicate a covetous disposition. Breast pins made of souvenir spoons are a late feminine fad. It is probably called pin money because the husband is stuck for it. Ten bridesmaids are quite the orthodox number in England this season. "Pa mortifies me," said Miss Jenkins. "He always will say sassiness instead of sassiness."

"I'll have no more of your lip!"

is what the discarded lover said to his angry sweetheart.

Mrs. Clacker—Is that gentleman standing by the door a friend of yours? Mrs. Whacker—Oh, no, indeed! That's my husband.

The fact that there are more than a million more men than women in this country is perhaps what makes the girls so hard to suit.

Bloggs says he was almost knocked flat the other day by suddenly reflecting that nearly all the pretty girls are but ineffectual mothers-in-law.

"We've got to economize," said Mr.

Gargyle to his wife. "Very well, my dear," replied the good woman, cheerfully; "you shave yourself and I'll cut your hair."

Neil—Do you think absence makes the heart grow fonder? Belle—Yes, indeed! When Jack calls I never once think of Tom, and when Tom's here I forget Jack entirely.

Tommy—Pa, some ladies told me to day you were the better horse of the two. What did they mean by that? Pa—They meant, Tommy, that I was so gentle a lady could manage me.

He—How's this? Aren't we going to have any dinner today? She—I guess not. That woman over the way has bought such a lovely new bonnet that I haven't got a bit of appetite.

DOINGS AND SAYINGS.

The total number of Chinese in the United States in 1883 was 105,000. The total number in 1890 was only 107,475, a gain in ten years of but 2,000.

The Arctic whale never migrates to the southward, as most species of whales do, because of its inability to live in the heated waters of the southern seas.

The lord mayor of London has an allowance of $50,000 per year, but, according to Edmund Yates, the sum is only half sufficient, owing to the enormous amount of entertaining which the head of the Mansion house is called upon to do.

A California man offers to give, without charge, to the city of San Francisco a flow of water amounting to 120,000,000 gallons daily, and bring it about 120 miles from the forks of North and Middle Yuba rivers. His only condition is that he should have the privilege of leasing for a period of twenty-five years the horse power to be developed from the water.

Various are the ways of taking a picture, but surely none more curious than that of a New York artist when he is about to paint a batch of water colors. He takes a long strip of paper, wets it, dabs color on it in surfaces as large as a dollar, and then walks over it in a pair of French sabots, or wooden shoes. After he has rammed around it for a time, mixing and distributing the color, subjects will suggest themselves out of accidental blotches of green, blue, brown and yellow, and he will cut the paper into various lengths and elaborate these suggestions into complete pictures.
